

WINE &amp; RATINGS

Domaine de la Bégude 2012 La Brûlade Red (Bandol)

95

POINTS

Cellar Selection

Made by the Tari family who used to own Château Giscours in Margaux, Bordeaux, this wine with its 18 months wood aging shows a great understanding of red-wine making. Firm and tannic, almost totally from Mourvèdre, this dark and brooding wine is nowhere near ready to drink. The organically grown grapes give a purity of fruit that cuts through the tannins. Don't drink before 2018.
