Made from 60% Clairette, 20% Ugni Blanc and 20% Vermentino, brought up all in stainless steel, the 2014 Bandol Blanc from Begude is a crisp, racy, medium-bodied and deliciously crisp white that offers lots of spiced apple, lychee, and pineapple aromas and flavors. It's a perfect meal starter over the coming year or two. I was incredibly impressed by these latest releases from Guillaume Tari. This estate deserves more attention in the market place.
